

Divergences and Convergences of the Contemporary India-China Relations

Date: Wednesday, September 30th 2015 | Time: 4-5:30 p.m. | Location: Room 120, C. K. Choi Building | Address: 1855 West Mall, Vancouver, B.C.

Ahmad Zahir Faqiri is a former Diplomat for Afghanistan. His lecture focuses on the dynamics and driving factors of the China -Indian relationship, with particular focus on maritime security, economics, energy, scourge of regional terrorism, and bilateral dialogue.

Since the 1962 China -Indian War, there have been competitive elements within the China-Indian relationship. Prior to his official visit to Beijing, Prime Minister Modi in a press briefing highlighted with confidence that "My visit to China will be a new Milestone for Asia."

In this lecture, Mr. Faqiri inquires: "What does Modi really want to bring to Asia?" Mr. Faqiri has thoroughly researched India's relationship with China and would like to share his expertise. This is a free and open lecture to the public, so please feel free to join us. No RSVP required.
