

Japan's Entry Into International Society

September

14

A talk by

Professor Tomoko Okagaki,
Dokkyo University

“What effect did Japan’s 19th century entry into international society have on international society itself? What implications does the Japanese experience hold for other countries today?”

Monday September 14th 2015

12:30 – 2pm

CK Choi Building, Room 120, 1984 West Mall, UBC

With thanks to:

For more info, contact: david.edgington@ubc.ca

Photo: David Stonham