

GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT & ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE :
A DISCUSSION WITH NOBEL LAUREATE
JOSEPH STIGLITZ

Date: Thursday, September 24th, 2015

Time: 3:00 PM—4:15 PM

Venue: The Dodson Room, Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

Columbia University economist Joseph Stiglitz is a leading scholar on the causes of inequality and a strong advocate for political and economic reform to address its consequences. He is a former senior vice president and chief economist of the World Bank and author of several books including, The Great Divide: Unequal Societies and What We Can Do About Them (2015).

Yves Tiberghien is the Director of the Institute of Asian Research, Executive Director of the UBC China Council, Co-Director of the Master of Public Policy and Global Affairs, and Associate Professor of Political Science. Prof. Tiberghien studies global economic governance.

The Lind Initiative in US Studies seeks to inspire students to become thought leaders who enhance mutual understanding in Canada-US relations. (lindinitiative.ubc.ca).

In partnership with the Political Science department and the Master of Public Policy & Global Affairs program.

a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA