

THE CENTRE FOR KOREAN RESEARCH IS PLEASED TO PRESENT:

"WHERE IS KOREA GOING?: THOUGHTS FROM KOREA'S LEADING CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHER"

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 2017
11:30AM-1:00PM
(REGISTRATION 11:00AM-11:25AM)

AUDITORIUM
ASIAN CENTRE
1871 WEST MALL

RSVP REQUIRED AT <http://CKR.IAR.UBC.CA/DRKIM>

*Lunch will be provided

*This seminar will be conducted in both English and Korean

*A public screening of Koguryo (2016, Presented in Korean with English subtitles), a documentary film produced by Dr. Kim, will follow the seminar and lunch

FEATURING
DR. YOUNG-OAK
KIM

BIO: Dr. Young-Oak Kim is widely considered as the leading contemporary philosopher in South Korea. Dr. Kim has sold over 3 million copies of his 75 monographs, making him the best-selling book author of all time. His works cover a wide array of topics, including philosophy, history, medicine, religion, aesthetics, martial arts, movies, drama, and contemporary politics. A series of his lectures on Confucianism, Taoism, and Buddhism were aired on national networks and garnered unprecedented acclaim.