

Master of Public Policy and Global Affairs

Examples of Economics & Statistics courses that may satisfy Program background prerequisites

Note: This list is not inclusive; other online options are available. Taking courses at a post-secondary institution is certainly an acceptable route as well. Please contact us regarding the option or options you may be considering.

❖ Microeconomics

- University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign - “Microeconomics Principles”:
<https://www.coursera.org/learn/microeconomics>
- Any course that transfers to Econ 101 at UBC as listed in the BC Transfer guide:
<https://www.bctransferguide.ca/>

❖ Macroeconomics

- Universidad Carlos III de Madrid: “Fundamentals of Macroeconomics”
<https://www.edx.org/course/fundamentals-of-macroeconomics?index=product&queryID=b539e41d6f43ad16f947e1b7b0188a80&position=4>
- Any course that transfers to Econ 102 at UBC as listed in the BC Transfer guide:
<https://www.bctransferguide.ca/>

❖ Statistics

- University of Amsterdam - “Basic Statistics”
No recommended background; a basic introduction of descriptive statistics.
<https://www.coursera.org/learn/basic-statistics>
- Any course that transfers to Stat 241 or 251 at UBC as listed in the BC Transfer guide: <https://www.bctransferguide.ca/>